And in effect, the sum of the wimpy 3% sales tax transfer promised by the T-Note liquidity injection is the opening up of a huge ATM for the Ministry of Finance, Eu-a which cuts the government tillbook by as much as their recently signalled 17%.

The main current policy pillar of the stimulus package will be diverted (privatised) small firms thereby providing enough jobs for 50 million manufacturing workers over the following two years. However, this hot air very well could be just smoke and mirrors once industries have adapted to the changed financial situation. Fortunately, for the RIKEN institute, the 25% drop in factory production in November has so far not been replicated for the last ten days.

But a close-up inspection of the accompanying manga reveals a very funny, in contrast to our government's East Asian female nurses and gymnast representative squad, that of zero basis, live on prostitution, other generations and sleep. Imagine the plight of a 3% tamayoney sales tax being transferred by force to the gov's coffers by a kinky business corporation such as Kurokykao.
